

PUBLIC LEDGER

SIXTH YEAR.

MAYSVILLE, KY., SATURDAY, JULY 10, 1897.

ONE CENT.

Purely Business!

The columns of a newspaper represent a cash value. No publisher can afford to give advertising "notices" free any more than a merchant can toss over his counter free gifts of dry goods or shoes. A newspaper is a legitimate business concern. Its columns are its stock in trade, and advertisements should be paid for, no matter in what part of the paper they appear.

The Continued Calls

upon THE LEDGER for free notices have become so burdensome that we are forced to publish the following terms:

For Notices of Ruptures.

Excursions, fairs, or other public entertainments where a fee is charged, and for obituary notices, resolutions of respect, etc., THE LEDGER will charge FIVE CENTS A LINE, and hereafter this will be the invariable rule. This, however, does not include.

Does Not Include

notices of Lodge meetings or Church services, which must not exceed ten lines.

Avoidance of Disputes.

Misunderstandings are unpleasant. The rate for Business Local in THE LEDGER is 10 cents a line for the first insertion and 5 cents a line for subsequent insertions. A customer orders a five-line local inserted in the paper. "I'll tell you when to take it out," he says to the bookkeeper. But he forgets all about it. The notice runs for two months—32 times—the bill is $16. When he finds it out there is a "kick" and a controversy, followed probably by an angry feeling. Now, to obviate this trouble, no "to be" notices will be accepted hereafter. Let's have a definite agreement at the outset and the termination will be pleasant all around.

All matter for publication must be handed in before 9 o'clock in the morning of each day.

If you have an item of news, please call up THE LEDGER, Telephone 35, and send it in.

All Causes Have Their Effects

Since the middle of June we have sold thrice the amount of goods than in the same given time since 1894. Why? Because money is more plentiful, and those that have the coin

Are Apt to Go Where They Get the Most and Best For Their Money.

When times were the hardest and most merchants bought the commonest of goods we kept on the even tenor of our way and bought only the highest class of merchandise. We may have missed some sales on low qualities, but we retained our high standard in our various lines, and as our people are now realizing better prices for their product and money is more plentiful we are reaping the benefit of our reputation for handling Good Clothing only. To show our appreciation to our patrons we are going to offer you for the next ten days, beginning Saturday morning, July 10th, the greatest values in Men's all wool Cassimere and Cheviot Suits that were ever offered in this or any other market.

$6.75 Cash

Will buy choice of 160 Suits that were made to sell at $12, which we have been selling at $10. See window display of them.

Just received and opened another large consignment of our elegant Crash Suits, the greatest hot weather suit in the state of Kentucky. We advise our friends to call early before the sizes are broken.

Constable Dawson made a good catch this morning. Ed. Robinson, a white man who resides at Charleston Bottom, was arrested by the Constable on a very grave charge, that of detaining a woman against her will. Mrs. Jones, aged 17, is the name of the woman, who also resides at Charleston Bottom. The trial is in progress before Judge Hutchins as we go to press.

Saturday E. H. Lander bought and took out a new self-binder to cut his wheat, says The Flemingsburg Times-Democrat. On Monday about 11 o'clock the horses attached to it took fright and ran away, throwing off "Squire Bush, who was driving, but fortunately on the opposite side from the sickle. The horses ran around the field three times and finally stopped in the middle of the field from exhaustion. The binder was almost torn to pieces, and Mr. Lander had to have the machine repaired to cut the 40 acres of wheat which was still standing at the time of the accident.

INJURED AT LEXINGTON.

Albert Hart, Son of Hon. Rolla K. Hart, in an Explosion.

Yesterday morning about 11 o'clock a dynamite bomb was exploded at the Cincinnati Southern Railroad crossing, in Lexington.

Albert Hart, aged 13, son of Hon. Rolla K. Hart of Fleming county, was passing on his bicycle, and was struck by some of the flying debris.

He was picked up by Dr. Carrick and taken to the home of Judge Mat Walton on West Third street, where the boy was visiting.

Drs. Kinnaird and Patterson were called and they with Dr. Carrick amputated the index finger of the right hand.

His thumb is badly smashed and may have to be taken off. The doctors took a small piece of the dynamite shell out of the boy's leg and he suffered an abrasion of the skin over the stomach.

At 4 o'clock in the afternoon young Albert Hart's injuries showed developments which looked far more serious than at first expected.

The doctors fear that he may have received internal injuries more serious than at first supposed.

Solid as a Rock.

The failure of some Building Associations, like the failure of some banks, only proves the exception and not the rule. In these as in other cases it is simply a survival of the fittest. Come what may, we shall always have banks and Building Associations, and it is right that only the fittest should survive. For about two years the Paducah Building Trust Company has been doing an excellent business here, and has connected with it some of our best business men. Besides, Maysville is represented among its nine Directors in the person of Mr. A. D. Cole. We can therefore speak with greater assurance concerning it, and with pleasure we copy the following card in regard to the strength, management and excellent condition of the Paducah Building Trust Company, which we believe will be of interest to the public generally as well as to those who have given it their confidence:

To the Stockholders of the Paducah Building Trust Company: The special meeting of the full Board of Directors having just closed, you are doubtless anxious to know what effect the panic in building and loan circles has had and will have upon our company. Naturally applications for withdrawal have been considerable. But we have asked no quarter, and for nearly six months the receipts have been largely used to pay withdrawals. This policy we deemed preferable to making loans with the receipts, both because it demonstrated our ability and willingness to pay our obligations and also because in every instance the profits voluntarily forfeited by the panic-stricken stockholders were more than we could possibly have made for the persistent stockholders by making loans. The result is that although our assets have been somewhat decreased, we yet have over $250,000 of assets, and are enabled to declare a large dividend for the last six months than ever before in the history of the company.

We deem it expedient, however, to attend in the future to the wants of the borrowers, and therefore we shall, in accordance with the discretion vested in us by the general law, and also by our charter and by-laws, devote only one-half the net receipts each month to the payment of withdrawals in the order filed, INTEREST ON WHICH STOCK STOPS WHEN SO FILED, and devote the other half to loans, both to meet the wants of the borrower as well as to increase our assets.

In conclusion we desire to say that in once the recent decision of the Court of Appeals becomes final, we have arranged our plan to conform to the law as so declared; and, in any event, the Paducah Building Trust Company will continue business, and as heretofore will afford a safe and profitable investment both to the borrower and to the investor. Very respectfully,

R. G. CALDWELL,
F. RIGLEBERGER,
W. P. GAZLIN,
HENRY BORSITT,
W. S. POLLARD,
GEORGE C. THOMPSON,
A. D. COLE,
J. R. LEMON,
GEORGE O. HART,
Directors.

We believe in giving honor to whom honor is due and praise to whom praise; and therefore we copy the foregoing from the columns of our esteemed contemporary.

Eyesight

Is of such great value that one ought to take more than ordinary precautions to guard against every possible trouble.

If you have even a remote suspicion that there is any trouble with your eyes it will be for your own best interests to have your vision tested and trouble, if any, removed.

Very simple troubles may develop serious results if not properly treated.

Ordinary failing eyesight receives our most careful attention, both as to glasses and frames.

It's just as important to have the right frame as the right glass, and from our large stock we can give you the correct thing in either Gold, Silver or Steel.

We make no charge for examinations, and if yours is a case requiring the services of an oculist we will frankly tell you so.
